Executive Leadership Forum: Navigating the Future of Finance

Meet our Panelist:

Mr. Lyndon Magsino

Global C-Suite Executive Board
Strategic Advisor
Finance • Risk • Governance

Mr. Lyndon Magsino, EMBA, CPA, CIA is an internationally respected business executive and strategic leader with extensive experience shaping corporate strategy, governance, enterprise risk, and organizational transformation across global financial institutions. Throughout his distinguished career, he has advised boards, executive committees, and senior leadership teams on navigating complexity, strengthening institutional resilience, and delivering sustainable business value in an evolving global economy.

Widely recognized for his thought leadership and commitment to professional excellence, he has played a pivotal role in advancing the finance and accountancy profession through executive mentoring, leadership development, and cross-border collaboration. His ability to bridge strategic vision with disciplined execution has earned the trust of business leaders across industries.

As a panelist at the Executive Leadership Forum: Navigating the Future of Finance, Lyndon will offer forward-looking perspectives on executive leadership, governance, and strategic decision-making, inspiring finance professionals to lead transformation, foster resilience, and create enduring value in an increasingly dynamic business landscape.
